

CHRIST THE KING SIXTH FORMS

16: The Right To A Vote?

An article from The Conversation that looks at an aspect of the democratic deficit to argue all 16 year-olds should be able to vote in the UK – it shouldn't depend on where you live.

With links to related articles

- Votes for 16-year-olds should be based on wider evidence, not just a need for participation
- We're not ready to lower the voting age to 16 yet
- Young people are detached from politics – schools can be the solution

<https://theconversation.com/all-16-year-olds-should-be-able-to-vote-in-the-uk-it-shouldnt-depend-on-where-you-live-138080>