

CHRIST THE KING SIXTH FORMS

Interested in Earth?

There is no Planet B; where we are is where we will be staying on Earth for some time to come so in our own interest to be ecological about it. Here are some suggestions of aspects that shape our environment.

To get an idea of the scale and distances in thinking about Earth's place in the universe look here:

<https://htwins.net/scale2/>

Planet Earth, explained

Our home planet provides us with life and protects us from space. Why protecting the quality of the atmosphere is useful.

<https://www.nationalgeographic.com/science/space/solar-system/earth/>

10 Strange Things You (Probably) Didn't Know About Earth

<https://www.nationalgeographic.com/news/2017/12/strange-facts-about-earth-one-strange-rock-will-smith-science/> and there are interesting facts about the Moon

<https://www.rmg.co.uk/explore/interesting-facts-about-moon>