

CTK EMMANUEL

A CHRIST THE KING SIXTH FORM

CTK Emmanuel
Lewisham, SE13 5GE

We are seeking a dedicated practitioner who will deliver outstanding teaching and learning in IT. If you are an exceptional teacher with a genuine passion for your subject, join us at Christ The King (CTK): Emmanuel, a Catholic Sixth Form for excellence, where students aspire to be the best and to reach the top in their chosen ambitions.

Coordinator of IT (Full Time)

Start Date: September 2024

Salary Range: £37,594 to £54,227 pro rata (inclusive of London Weighting), dependent upon experience

CTK Emmanuel is part of the Christ the King Sixth Forms group of three highly successful Catholic sixth forms located in south east London and Kent. Recently rated Good with Outstanding features by Ofsted. As a professional centre for excellence, CTK Emmanuel offers Applied Technical Qualifications, equivalent to 3 A Levels, and highly specialised routes to university. Located on the Blackheath borders with excellent transport links, Emmanuel students are inspired and motivated to succeed. CTK is a highly ambitious Catholic Sixth Form College, where all students are nurtured and supported to reach their full potential.

We are now looking for an inspirational and innovative leader to take forward our IT provision which includes both T Level and BTEC courses. You should have strong subject knowledge and the ability to lead and inspire both students and staff. If you are keen to teach in a post 16 setting, where all students are aged 16-19 this is a great opportunity. You will have experience of successfully delivering vocational programmes and a good understanding of assessment of vocational courses. This exciting leadership opportunity would suit an experienced colleague or one seeking promotion to their first leadership position.

You will join a talented staff team in a successful Sixth Form and will be supported to develop your teaching practice in an environment of positive encouragement and mutual respect. You'll provide outstanding teaching, learning and assessment, stretching and challenging your students to reach their potential. You will ensure they feel confident about going out into the world and being extraordinary in life and in their future career.

The salary is based on the SFCA's teaching spine points 1-9 £37,594 to £54,227 inclusive of London Weighting and responsibility allowance.

Join us to be inspired, be extraordinary, and be the best you can be.

Job Title:	Coordinator of IT
Responsible To:	Assistant Principal
Core Job Purpose:	In the context of the Sixth Forms mission and ethos, to provide inspirational leadership and exceptional management of the IT Department to ensure teaching and learning is of a consistently high quality and outcomes are excellent.

1. Job Description

This job description is in addition to that of a subject teacher (see page 6). The main activities and responsibilities are:

1.1 Key Areas

- To be accountable for student progress and development and to raise standards of student attainment and achievement within the whole curriculum area and to monitor and support student progress.
- To model the good practice expected of all subject teachers as defined in the Teacher Job Description and demonstrate high expectations by leading by example.
- To provide leadership and direction for the department and ensure that it is managed and organised to meet the aims and objectives of the Sixth Forms and the subject.
- To be responsible for securing high standards of teaching and learning as well as playing a major role in the development of Sixth Forms policy and practice.
- To monitor the effectiveness of the department by reviewing student performance and monitoring progress (including the Performance Management of the teaching staff within the department).

- To manage and deploy teaching/support staff, financial and physical resources within the department effectively to support the department development plan.

1.2 Strategic Direction and Development of the Subject

- Develop and implement policies and practices for the subject which reflect whole Sixth Forms aims and objectives, policies and practices, encompassing the development and review of syllabuses, resources, schemes of work, marking policies, assessment and teaching and learning strategies in the department.
- Create a climate, which enables other staff to develop and maintain positive attitudes towards the subject and its teaching.
- Demonstrate both enthusiasm and high standards of teaching to members of the department and students.
- Establish short, medium and long term plans for the development and resourcing for the subject which contribute to whole-Sixth Form aims, policies and practices. Identifying these would initiate realistic targets for the development of the subject.
- Meet the requirements of Health and Safety within the Department at all times.
- Assist in the development of teachers within the department by actively supporting and mentoring them.

1.3 Teaching and Learning

- Ensure effective curriculum coverage, continuity and progression in the subject for all students by all members of the department.
- Ensure that teachers are clear about the teaching objectives in lessons, provide guidance on the choice of appropriate teaching and learning methods, and after evaluation of the teaching of the subject in the Sixth Form, take action to improve if necessary.
- Establish clear policies for assessing, recording and reporting on student achievement, and using these to set targets for further improvement.
- Establish high expectations and ensure that clear targets are set for student achievement including those with special educational needs and the more able.
- Use data effectively to identify students who are underachieving in the subject and create appropriate plans of action.
- Meet regularly with the department to model and disseminate good practice.

1.4 Recruitment/Deployment of Staff

- Be responsible for the efficient and effective deployment of the Department's staff.
- Undertake appraisal and lesson observations in accordance with Sixth Form systems.
- Make appropriate arrangements for classes when staff are absent, ensuring appropriate cover within the department, liaising with the cover supervisor/relevant staff to secure appropriate cover.
- Promote teamwork and to motivate staff to ensure effective working relations.
- Be responsible for the day-to-day management of staff within the designated department and act as a positive role model.
- Ensure all new staff are inducted into the Department/Sixth Form and documentation is completed as set out in Sixth Forms' policies.

1.5 Quality Assurance

- Ensure the process of the setting of targets within the department is in line with Sixth Form processes and to work towards their achievement.
- Establish common standards of practice within the department and develop the effectiveness of teaching and learning styles.
- Seek/implement modification and improvement where required.
- Ensure that the Department's quality procedures meet the requirements of Course Reviews and the Sixth Form Development Plan.
- Produce examinations analysis as required and reviews which form part of the self-evaluation cycle and quality improvement plans.
- Complete all planning documents, reports and returns within the designated deadline.

1.6 Marketing and Liaison

- Contribute to Sixth Forms liaison and marketing activities.

- Lead the development of effective subject links with partner schools and the community, attendance where necessary at liaison events in partner schools and the effective promotion of subjects at Open Days/Evenings and other events.

1.7 Pastoral System

- Ensure the performance monitoring system is implemented in the department so that effective learning can take place.
- Monitor and support the overall progress and development of students within the department.
- Monitor student attendance together with students' progress and performance, with the class teacher, in relation to targets set for each individual; ensuring that follow-up procedures are adhered to and that appropriate action is taken where necessary.

1.8 Other Specific Duties

- Manage and monitor the allocated budget for the department effectively and appropriately.
- Play a full part in the life of the Sixth Forms' community, to support its distinctive mission, ethos and policies and to encourage and ensure staff and students to follow this example.
- A commitment to Equity, Diversity and Inclusivity underpinned by willingness and ability to contribute to the holistic implementation of this demonstrated in performing the duties of the post.
- Continue personal professional development as agreed.
- Engage actively in the performance review process.
- Comply with the Sixth Forms' Health and Safety policy and undertake risk assessments as appropriate.
- To undertake other tasks, as required by the Executive/Deputy Principal, after due consultation

This job description may not necessarily be a comprehensive description of the post. It may be reviewed and subject to modification or amendment at any time after consultation with the post holder.

2. Person Specification

This person specification is in addition to that of a subject teacher. The post holder will be expected to have the following skills and attributes:

2.1 Leadership and Management

- Ability to work strategically, shaping the future and securing the learning outcomes of the vision.
- Ability to plan, organise, prioritise and delegate workload effectively and meet deadlines.
- Experience of leading a team, performance management, mentoring and developing others.
- Desire, capacity and ability to develop others and challenge underperformance.
- Evidence of ongoing professional development in relation to leadership.
