Giving Back to the Next Generation

We were delighted to welcome back CTK alumnus Daniel Dimitrovski to our recent UCAS Early Application Information Evening, where he shared his experiences of applying to and studying at Oxbridge with current students and their families.

Daniel spoke candidly about his own journey, sharing what makes a strong application for highly competitive courses. He emphasised the importance of genuine passion and intellectual curiosity, encouraging students to let these qualities shine through in their personal statements and interviews.

We are incredibly grateful to Daniel for giving his time and sharing his experience, helping our students feel informed, motivated and confident as they consider their future ambitions.
