CHRIST THE KING
SIXTH FORMS

UT VITAM HABEANT

The Governing Body

Ms Reynier - Foundation Governor, Co - Chair

She brings a wealth of experience and expertise to the role as Co-Chair of Governors, having been Vice Chair previously. With a highly successful career in the Civil Service, where she held a senior position in education policy and conducted significant project reviews, she has demonstrated a deep understanding of the educational landscape. They are currently the Director of People Services and Products and was previously Director of People Experience at Citizens Advice and Head of Organisation and People Development at the University of Greenwich.

Mrs Nunes - Foundation Governor Co - Chair

Taking on the role of Co-Chair from January 2026, she has a wealth of experience working with young adults. She is passionate about ensuring equity of opportunities for all students. She recently retired as a senior leader in a College where she had responsibility for student bursary and Free School Meals, as well as leading a large group of Professional Service Staff. They have an excellent, up to date knowledge of Keeping Children Safe in Education and is the Governors Safeguarding Lead, she has a wealth of experience in student wellbeing and safeguarding ensuring students are at the centre of all decisions. She is a Foundation Governor and has worked in the Catholic Education sector for the majority of her career.

Ms Afranie - Foundation Governor

She is a 2012 Graduate from the University of Bedfordshire who has actively held several accounting roles predominantly in the Property, Construction, Rail industries. Her last and current role have been in the Government Sector. An accountant with 11+ years of experience within a broad range from treasury, taxation, reporting, financial strategy and general accounting within multimillion+ organisations who has implemented numerous changes within her roles to achieve objectives and make positive change not just within the numbers. She is passionate about students education and enabling them to get experience and skills that they can use for the future.

From 2019 to 2021 she was part of the leadership board for Diversity and Inclusion at Network Rail. She has also been involved in a number of mentoring programmes at the Princes Trust.

Ms Akokhia - Associate Governor

Ms Akokhia has joined the Governing Body as an Associate Governor. As a is a former student at the Emmanuel site, they left CTK to undertake a BSc in Business and Management from the University of Surrey. They have over 10 years' experience in the charity sector and youth engagement and are the founder of a social enterprise company, committed to empowering disadvantaged young people aged 16-25, through education, mentoring and personal development.

Mr Burns - Foundation Governor

He spent his working life in financial management. After 15 years in the commercial world, he moved into the education sector and for the last 20 years of his career, he worked in a highly successful Catholic sixth form college within the senior leadership team where he had responsibility for finance and the estates. They have extensive knowledge of health and safety, audit and risk which he hopes to bring to his role within the governing body. He is Chair of the Finance and Resources Committee and sits on the Emmanuel Local Board.

Mr Ferguson - Foundation Governor

Mr Ferguson is a former student of Christ the King: St Mary's, where he went on to study Biology at Queen Mary, University of London. He has previously worked in the NHS and medical recruitment prior to training to teach. He is an experienced secondary school teacher of Science has extensive middle and senior leadership experience gained across working in 4 Catholic schools in London. He currently works as a Lead practitioner and is passionate about teaching and learning and coaching and developing staff. He is the Chair of Governors for a Catholic primary school in the Royal Borough of Greenwich and is a Eucharistic minister at his local parish. He sits on the curriculum committee.

Ms George - Teaching Staff Governor

As a former student of Christ the King, graduating in 2007, it is here that Ms George first developed a love for media studies. After graduating in Film and TV Production at the University of Portsmouth, she built a successful career in advertising sales, gaining valuable experience in the creative industries. In 2019, she moved into teaching and returned to Christ the King as a teacher of BTEC Creative Digital Media Production in 2024. She is someone who is passionate about community and has previously served as a tenant governor for a housing association. Being raised in South East London, she connects and relates to many of the students, and her goal is to support them in unlocking their full potential.

Dr Mihovilovic - Foundation Governor

Dr Mihovilović is Associate Professor and Subject Lead for the Postgraduate Taught Programmes in Education at St Mary's University. She is an experienced secondary school teacher of Religious Education, middle and senior leader. After completing teacher training at St Mary's College, Strawberry Hill, she taught in five Catholic comprehensive schools serving diverse inner city, suburban and rural communities. Further studies at Roehampton and Heythrop in Educational Leadership and Christian Spirituality followed.

Her doctoral research explored the experiences of Catholic teachers in secular schools, and she is currently engaged in researching the experiences of Catholic school and college teachers who are not Catholics and the distinctiveness of Catholic Multi Academy Trusts. She has extensive in the third sector as trustee and in various leadership roles and is a Foundation Director of a Nottingham Diocesan Catholic Multi Academy Trust and closely involved with CMAT developments nationally and in other dioceses. She sits on the St Mary's Local Board and is the Vice Chair of the Audit & Risk Committee.

Mrs Ogbebor - Foundation Governor

An experienced Client Relationship Manager and Investment Banker with over 20 years' expertise in leadership, governance, and stakeholder engagement within global financial services. Skilled in mentoring, process improvement and strategic decision-making, with a proven record of building strong relationships and delivering measurable results. Passionate about religious education, community development, and supporting young people to achieve their full potential. Mrs Ogbebor is also a catechism teacher in her local parish. They are a member of the Finance, Resources and Business Committee.

Ms Olarewaju - Parent Governor

Joining CTK in November 2024 as the Parent Governor representative, they have a son studying at the Emmanuel site. Previously a freelance Drama Workshop Leader and a Drama/ESOL Lecturer, having worked in various London and Kent Schools.
As Parent Governor they have expressed their commitment to contributing to the continued success and improvement of CTK.

Mr Olokode - Foundation Governor

Mr Olokode is a former CTK Emmanuel alumnus who studied Economics and Finance at university. He began his career in finance at a FTSE 100 company before transitioning into the technology sector, where he currently works as a Senior Delivery Manager for the UK's largest commercial broadcaster. Throughout his career in both finance and tech, he has consistently designed and delivered programmes and curricula for students from disadvantaged backgrounds, supporting those interested in careers in finance or technology and helping young people navigate life after college and university. He has worked closely with the college through talks and student programmes, served on the Partnership Board, and now sits on the Governors' Board. He is also a four-time recipient of a BIMA (British Interactive Media Awards) for his work in technology and youth engagement.

Ms Pinto - Foundation Governor

As a former CTK student and advocate of sixth form education, she went on to study Psychology at the University of Hertfordshire.
On leaving university, she joined the Civil Service as a Senior Policy Advisor. They were appointed by the Diocese and joined the Governing Body in November 2024.
She is a member of the Audit & Risk Committee.

Mrs Razey - Executive Principal

She joined CTK in 2002 as Senior Curriculum Manager for Business Studies. Whilst at CTK, she has completed her MA in Education Leadership and was promoted to Associate Principal before becoming Principal of the CTK St Mary's site in 2009. In 2019, Mrs Razey became Executive Principal of Christ the King Sixth Forms and a member of the Governing Body. Awarded with an OBE in the King's Birthday Honours 2024; this prestigious recognition celebrates her exceptional contributions to education and her unwavering commitment to promoting social mobility.

Fr Sombu - Professional Services Staff Governor

Fr Sombu Thaddeus Terungwa is a member of the Congregation of the Holy Spirit (Spiritans), British Province, a Catholic Religious Order committed to missionary and pastoral service. He was ordained to the priesthood in Nigeria in 2013 and brings with him a wealth of pastoral experience, having served in various capacities across diverse communities in his home country. In the United Kingdom, Fr Sombu currently serves as Assistant Parish Priest at St Joseph's Catholic Church in Greenwich, London. He also ministers as Priest Chaplain at Christ the King Sixth Form College, offering spiritual support and guidance to students and staff alike. Known for his unassuming nature and strong sense of collaboration, Fr Sombu values teamwork and pastoral presence. He enjoys engaging with young people and contributing to their holistic development: spiritually, academically and socially. Outside of his ministry, Fr Sombu is an avid sports enthusiast. He enjoys both playing and watching football, basketball and tennis. He is pleased to be part of the Governing Board at Christ the King Sixth Form College and looks forward to supporting its mission through faith, service and community engagement.