Careers Conference

Our annual careers conference was a great success, bringing together a wide range of visitors including universities, degree apprenticeship providers and a range of employers. Students had the opportunity to engage with workshops, some delivered by our inspiring CTK alumni, alongside leading businesses helping students explore future pathways and career ambitions.

A special thank you goes to everyone who attended and contributed to the day, and in particular to our CTK alumni, including Nana who lead our LinkedIn workshop and Seye, our Foundation Governor and former CTK Emmanuel student. Your continued support and experiences continue to make a lasting impact on our students.

And a huge thanks to Karyn and George who were also interviewed on the day.

Stay tuned to see the video on our socials!

Jack Petchey Award Ceremony

We are incredibly proud of our students who recently attended the Jack Petchey Foundation Award Ceremony.

Massive congratulations to alumnus Yomitha as this achievement is a testament to your hard work and dedication. We were delighted to see you acknowledged on such a special platform!

Alumni Spotlight: Grace

We were delighted to welcome back CTK alumna Grace, who recently returned to the college to speak at our Open Day and reconnect with her former teacher, Mr Bolton!
Since leaving CTK, Grace has taken an inspiring path. Despite receiving an Oxbridge offer, she chose to pursue a degree apprenticeship in finance, demonstrating a clear sense of direction and ambition. She is now progressing strongly in her career and is already managing two members of staff within her HR and finance department.

It was fantastic to have you back, Grace, to inspire the next generation of CTK students!

Cephas and Tada Joins us for Open Evening

We proudly welcomed Tada and Cephas to our St Mary's Open Evening this month who were both warmly welcomed by their former teachers.

Thank you both for taking the time to greet our prospective students, telling them about your journey after CTK and the successes you've made. You are both truly inspiring people and we can't wait to have you back again!
